

NATIONAL CHILD PROTECTION SEMINAR
SCOTLAND

A Pragmatic Response for Practitioners:

Baby Peter, Brandon Muir, Victoria Climbié,
Caleb Ness

The analysis of risk, lawful protection and intervention

The Lessons Learned

Getting it right

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

9.00 - 10.00 Registration

10.00 Seminar Opening

Deborah Stuart-Angus, CEO AssessForCare Scotland & National Training Awards Ambassador

10.10 Chair's Welcome & Introduction to the day

Professor Brigid Daniel, Stirling University

10.30 More of the Same Won't Do

Michelle Miller, President ADSW

10.45 Questions & Discussion

11.05 Break

11.30 Lessons Learned (1) Analysis, Analogy & Risk:

Caleb Ness & Brandon Muir

Moira McKinnon, Independent Consultant & Co-author of the Caleb Ness Report

12.15 Questions & Discussion

12.30 Lunch

1.15 Lessons Learned (2) Analysis, Analogy & Risk: Victoria

Climbie & Baby Peter

Martin Grant, Safeguarding Lead, Haringey NHS Trust

Questions & Discussion

2.00 Improvement, Implementation & Impact

Alan Baird, Director of Social Work, Dundee City Council

2.30 What Price Safe Practice? Building a Co-ordinated Community Response

Mhairi McGowan, ASSIST, Glasgow Community & Safety Services

Questions & Discussion

3.15 Chair's Summary & Close

3.30 - 4.30 Drinks Reception: Launching The SARPE-L Research Project Using e-Learning to safeguard Children & Adults in Scotland

THE LAUNCH: E-LEARNING FOR PUBLIC SERVICES

3rd June 2010, 3.30pm - 4.30pm
Celtic Park, Glasgow

The unveiling of our cutting edge e-learning; AssessForCare invites you to sample and evaluate a pioneering partnership of technology and content. Come and join us after the National Adult Safeguarding Seminar for presentations and lively discussions; chat with creators, content specialists and practitioners over a glass of wine.

This is an entirely complimentary event - Booking is Essential

To book any of these events or for more information please visit www.assessforcare.com or call 0845 862 2286

